PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Tentatively Agreed April 22, 2020

Section 1: The University and the Union agree that adequate opportunities for training and professional development are essential. The University will maintain support for training and professional development programs for employees. Nothing in this Agreement will preclude the University from enhancing the training and professional development programs provided to Employees.

Section 2: Individual Development Plan

Employees are encouraged to develop an Individual Development Plan (IDP). If the Employee chooses to submit the IDP to their supervisor for discussion, the supervisor(s) will review the IDP, share their knowledge about available development opportunities with the Employee, and provide advice about possible revisions to the IDP as needed. The Employee and the supervisor(s) may engage in ongoing discussions regarding the IDP.

Section 3: Performance Review

Supervisors shall provide their Employees with at least one written review per 12-month period. This review is a comprehensive assessment of the Employee's research progress and achievements, and their professional development during the previous year. The supervisor may utilize an independently developed or a pre-established form when conducting the review.

Section 4: The contents of Individual Development Plans and Performance Reviews are not grievable and nothing else in this Article shall be arbitrable. In the event the Employee disagrees with the substantive aspects of the review, the Employee may file an addendum to the personnel file and/or discuss it with the Department Chair or Unit Director.

The University reserves the right to add to, delete or modify these proposals at any time during bargaining.
